STATE SENATOR.

We are authorized to announce

DR. A. D. JAMES,
Of Muhlenberg county, as a candidate for State Senator in the 8th Senatorial District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce

ESQ. W. I. ROWE,
Of Centertown, as a candidate to represent Ohio county in the Lower House of the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Republican party.

THE Democracy's love for the old soldier is continually manifested by the unmistakable evidence of stopping pensions.

THE Owensboro Messenger, which is still a Free Silver paper, is taking the Courier-Journal to task for its change of front on the silver question.

THE cut worms have been doing great damage to crops in different parts of the county during the past several days. It is hoped, however, that the worst is over.

THE papers on last Monday contained accounts of a killing at New Orleans similar to the Gordon-Brown affair at Louisville, only that the wife in this instance escaped.

By a united effort the Democratic press is attempting to divert the minds of the people from the Tariff, Pension and other issues in the vain hope that the dust they raise on the financial question may blind the people to the enmity, ruinous enmity, the Democratic party bears toward the old soldier and to American industries. The party, it seems, is willing to go before the people in the attitude of a rudderless ship, so far as the financial question is concerned, rather than to stand by and defend the record it has made in other directions. In the meantime the country suffers the ill effects of Democratic Tariff tinkering and the old soldiers feel the iron hand of Democracy decreasing their pensions or destroying them altogether. These things the Democracy dislike to have talked about and hence the financial question is brought forward to shield the party's unenviable record. These tactics are eminently Democratic, but they are too well known to accomplish their purpose.

PRESIDENT Cleveland has written another letter urging the importance of sound currency, and Democratic conventions are denouncing the President and his position and crying loudly for the Free and Unlimited Coinage of silver at 16 to 1.

JUDGE Perkins in his charge to the Kenton Grand Jury on Tuesday, laid great stress upon the crime of carrying concealed deadly weapons and urged the Grand Jury to investigate thoroughly all cases, no matter how high the standing of the parties. This excited the fears of Senator Goebel and his friends lest the Grand Jury might look farther into his case.

PROF. R. H. CAROTHERS, of Louisville, has announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Prof. Carothers is one of the leading educators of the State, is a polished gentleman and possesses qualifications for the place second to those of no other man in the State. He would be a source of strength to the ticket.

THE Louisville Times says that the Gordon-Brown tragedy will be a great warning to erring husbands and wives. It lacks only one thing of being complete. It needs a counterpart. Some wronged wife should follow her unfaithful lord to an assignation house and kill him and his mistress after the style of Gordon. In other words turn the tables and complete the picture. Then the example would be about perfect.

THE Courier-Journal of a recent date contains the following interesting item:

"Dr. Wm. Elliott, of New Haven, Nelson county, has lived under every President since John Adams, and, excepting the first, under every Governor Kentucky has had since its admission as a State. Dr. Elliott was 97 years old last Saturday, and as he is hale and hearty, his friends think he will round out 100 years, if not more. The doctor does not patronize a barber but shaves himself twice a week. He is an excellent performer on the violin and plays the tunes that were in vogue in Kentucky 70 and 80 years ago.

MARION COUNTY

Holds an Enthusiastic Convention and Selects Delegates to the State Convention.

LEBANON, Ky., May 6th, 1895.
The Republicans of Marion county met in mass convention in Lebanon to day. B. T. Conway was made permanent Chairman and R. C. Blandford Secretary. A committee on resolutions was appointed which retired and reported through its chairman, C. A. Johnson, the following which were unanimously adopted:

Be it resolved by the Republicans of Marion county, in convention assembled:

That we approve the call for a State Convention to meet in the city of Louisville, the 5th day of June next, and endorse and commend the spirit and sentiment prompting the change in the date of that convention from the 25th of May to the said date.

That we reaffirm our allegiance to Republican principles as set forth and embodied in the platforms of the party, State and National, through many years past, and declare that it is only in return to the same, in the administration of the Federal Government that we can expect that era of prosperity to again bless our country of which it has been robbed by Democratic Legislation.

That the business stagnation, industrial paralysis and consequent misery and want which has come upon our country and abides with its people now, as it has done for the past two years, was, and is, the legitimate result of Democratic Legislation, promised and enacted completely by all that the Republicans urged in 1892 would come to pass if the Democracy should gain control of the country and endeavor to put their ruinous theories of free trade into operation.

That we specially indorse the revenue bill known as the "McKinley bill" and when we have a Republican Administration in 1896 we will demand of our Representative the enactment of a bill in every material element similar to the McKinley bill, with its ample sugar bounty and magisterial tariff provisions, to the end that our country may again be placed on the high road of general prosperity, the highest ever reached in this country, and under the beneficent influence of that wise legislation, the McKinley law, and that the mule trade bringing its thousands of dollars to Marion county may again be such as to reward many of its citizens in their labors and efforts in life.

That we believe the people of the United States are entitled to, and should have, a sound and stable currency, with gold as the unit of value, and we are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver except in a ratio to its intrinsic value, as recognized by the commercial Nations of the world. We believe in the coinage of silver in such quantities and at such a ratio as the silver dollar can be maintained on a par with a gold dollar; utilizing, for money, to the fullest extent, the output of our own mines consistent with the integrity of our currency. The Republican party will in the future, as in the past, stand by honest money and National honor.

That in conducting the State's affairs the Democracy has done those things it ought not to have done and left undone those things it should have done and there is no soundness in it, and the crying demand is for a change in the political complexion of the State Government to the end that the State may have an honest, prudent, economical, patriotic and intelligent business like administration of its affairs.

That we denounce the weak and cowardly Foreign policy of the Cleveland Administration, and especially in the Nicaraguan incident in permitting the landing of British troops at Corinto and the hoisting of the union jack over the public buildings in Corinto. We denounce the act as a violation of the Monroe doctrine, so dear to every American heart, and one which should not have been permitted by this Government and would not have been permitted under a Republican Administration, until some one of England's Iron Clads, at least, had come to Davy Jones's locker.

That we have amplified our platform of principles to an extent unusual in county conventions, because of the efforts making by Democrats to escape the responsibility of their ruinous legislation on the tariff, by raising a grand cry about free silver, raising a red herring of the old green back craze, a thinly disguised mask, and dodging the tariff entirely. We desire that amid all the smoke, only, which hovers over the political battle field of to day, that the people of Marion county may know exactly where we stand, on these lines we invite all good and patriotic citizens, what ever may have been their party affiliations heretofore, who desire a return of that prosperity which always blessed us as a Nation, under Republican rule, and who desire that Kentucky, with its splendid resources may take a position among the great States, such as she is entitled to, and that its Circuit Courts may not have to be run on a credit, and jurors discount their per diem to get their pay, to join with us in lifting Kentucky out of the old "ruts."

That the delegates herein after appointed be instructed to cast the vote of Marion county in said State Convention as follows, for Governor, W. O. Bradley, of Garrard, Lieut. Governor, Gen. E. H. Hobson of Green, Auditor, Dr. C. J. Walton, of Hart, Treasurer, George W. Long, of Grayson, Commissioner of Agriculture, Lucas Moore, of Marion, and use all honorable means to secure their nomination.

[For want of space we omit names of delegates]
It is further resolved by this convention, that in the event the Republicans control the next Legislature in Kentucky, which it now seems more than probable they will do, they will urge the name of Hon. John W. Lewis for United States Senator. We believe a grateful party will recognize the splendid achievements of our representative, his ability and his worth and will ask that he come up higher.

Should any question come before the State convention looking towards the nomination of a United States Senator all delegates herein appointed are instructed to vote in all things looking thereto, in the interest of Mr. Lewis.

RESOLVED, That the delegates herein named be also instructed to cast the vote of Marion county in said State Convention for Charles W. Bell, of Mercer, for Supt. of Public Instruction, and J. N. Edwards of Anderson for Railroad Commissioner in this the 2nd Commissioner district.

RESOLVED, That the Republicans of Marion county, speaking through this convention, extend their thanks to Mr. L. M. Drye, who to day at his own request, retires as chairman of the County Committee which he has so long so acceptably filled. C. J.

Pirate Smith.

"The Courier-Journal of Monday says: 'Dr. J. R. Pirtle, of Hartford, Ky., was quietly married yesterday by the Rev. J. W. Lewis, at the Fifth and Walnut Street M. E. Church, to Miss Ida M. Smith of Owensboro. The bride and groom arrived in the city accompanied by Miss Emma A. Mosely and Mr. Owen J. Thomas, of Hartford, who were witnesses of the ceremony. The happy couple stayed at the Willard Hotel last night, and will leave to-day for Cincinnati for a bridal tour through the East. Dr. Pirtle is a grand nephew of the late Judge Pirtle, of this city, and is related to Maj. Pirtle and others of the same name, who are so well known in Louisville.'"

These young people are well known and very popular in Hartford, where Dr. Pirtle has a fine dental practice and where the couple will make their future home.

GRAYSON COUNTY

Instructs for Bradley and Long and Holds an Interesting Convention.

LEITCHFIELD, KY., May 4. A Delegated Convention of the Grayson county Republicans was held at the Court House to-day and nominated Ben L. Bruner for representative of Grayson and appointed delegates to the State Convention, instructed for W. O. Bradley and Geo. W. Long. The County Committee was reorganized. The following resolutions were adopted.

Resolved, 1 That we approve of the action of the State Convention to meet in Louisville on June 5 and the call for this convention.

2. That we congratulate the national Republican party on the magnificent victory which crowned the labors of the last fall's campaign, and especially do we congratulate the people of Kentucky on the almost certain overthrow of the political octopus which, under the protecting wing of the prejudice-fattened Democratic party, has fastened itself upon the proud old Commonwealth, and like a vampire, has sapped our prosperity, arrested our national progress and destroyed the energies of our people by blasting their hopes of industrial success.

3. That we favor the improvements of our roadways, reforms in our penal and charitable institutions, the cleanup of Kentucky on its national progress and the substitution of the expenditure of public moneys approved business methods in the conduct of every department of the State.

4. That we denounce the maladministration of the Democratic party in Kentucky for its dissipation of the sinking fund which, together with war claims due from the United States aggregated over $9,000,000 in 1865, for its transfer of the funds belonging to the sinking funds, to the general expenditure fund, and for borrowing the school funds, and issuing the interest bearing bonds of the State therefor, for the useless employment of special counsel to do the work of the Attorney General by which, from $10,000 to $20,000 a year has been wasted, for the creation of useless offices directly opposite to the constitution, for the overhauling of the ballot box, and the substitution of rule for the peoples rule.

5. That we cordially invite all men of whatever former political affiliations, who believe in overthrowing the present ring rule at Frankfort, and emancipating the State from the blight of modern Democracy and who desire to see the law executed and our institutions intelligently conducted in the interest of the people and not of the bosses, to join with us in electing the Republican ticket in November.

6. That we instruct the delegates to cast the vote of Grayson county as a unit for the Hon. W. O. Bradley, for Governor and for our fellow countyman, Geo. W. Long, for Treasurer. The Convention was a very enthusiastic one, and the Republicans of Grayson mean business.

ATTN.

On Saturday morning, last, Mrs. Jacob Westerfield died at her home two miles southeast of town. She had been as well as usual Friday morning, when she left off work in the garden where she was engaged in some planting, saying that she was not feeling well. She went to the house and lay down and was soon unconscious and remained so for several hours. She was better early Saturday morning, but died later. Rev. G. J. Bean preached the funeral at the home Sunday at 11 o'clock to a large number of relatives and friends, after which the remains were interred in Oakwood.

She was a faithful, earnest Christian, a loving wife, an affectionate mother, a kind friend and an obliging neighbor, and her loss will be deeply felt in the community.

Sick Headache and Neuralgia Cured by Hood's.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me a great deal of good. I have been a sufferer from sick headache and neuralgia nearly all my life. The pains had become so intense that my hands would cramp for hours so that I could not use them. The doctor told my husband there was little help for me. The different medicines tried had greatly disheartened me. Since using two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I have realized relief, so much so that I feel like a new person. Our little boy has been troubled with his throat but since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, soreness and hoarseness have gone and he is better in health." Mrs. MATTIE GUPLIN, Dukedom, Tennessee. ECHOES.

The following beautiful essay was read before the Livermore Literary Club recently by Miss Nanny Funk:

"Life without hope is like drawing nectar through a sieve, and hope without an object cannot live."

What is the value of life without an object in view? It is quite true some are satisfied to sit and gaze and gossip about the success or failure of enemies and friends, as "Old Women's Gossip Club," and "Old Men's Slang Club" is full and overflowing with echoes of their meetings. They are no respecters of persons, and "Many a word at random spoken May soothe or wound the heart that's broken."

Let the object of our life be something elevating and let it ever echo high and inspiring sentiments. Let us try and make our lives edifying so in after years the memory of them will echo interesting and delightful thoughts. How many sentiments do we hear expressed that seem to echo in our hearts? Is there a maiden whose heart would not echo of a noble minded man, were he to whisper in her ear something like this:

Do you ask me love with fond caress, What seems to me perfect happiness? Well, a golden sun, a sapphire sky, And emerald earth, and you and I Roaming through woodland green together.

That's happiness in summer weather. They say it is winter, outside is the snow, Inside is the fires warm, cheerful glow And we sit by the cheek touching cheek; Silent sometimes and sometimes we speak, So I find in winter as summer weather.

Happiness means to be together.

Perhaps many are just experiencing this happy phrase of life and the echo will come later on. What echo in life is sweeter than the laughter of an innocent child? How many can look back to childhood days and echo the songs our mothers lulled us to sleep with? Do we ever hear, "bye oh, baby bunting," and "bye my baby bye oh." That a tender cord is not touched? The word "mother" will awaken many sleeping thoughts for—

There are words that speak of a friend—less love Which burns in the hearts we cheer—ish, And accents that tell of a friendship proved— That will never blight as perish; There are soft words murmured by dear, dear lips, Far richer than any other; But the sweetest word that ear hath heard Is the blessed name of "Mother."

Dear friends while we are sowing seeds of kindness and little words of love let us pray that our endeavors will be echoed in Heaven and that our lives will be pleasantly remembered by the sunshine we have cast here on earth. How beautifully someone has defined the word echo in the following lines:

I shot an arrow into the air, It fell on earth I know not where. I breathed a song into the air, It fell on earth I know not where. Long years after in the heart of an oak, I found the arrow still unbroke, And the song from beginning to end I found again in the heart of a friend.

Obituary.
Funeral Services of Hon. J. M. Forgy were held at C. P. church here last Monday morning, conducted by Mr. Kimberlin, pastor of the C. P. church of which deceased was a member.

Song by choir: "When Jesus Comes to Reward His Servants," led by J. D. Tanner; Miss Minnie Dabbs presiding at the organ, followed by the reading of the 14th chapter of Job, and prayer. Song: Oh, Troubled Heart There is a Home. Mr. Kimberlin spoke as follows:

Judge Forgy was born June 23 1820, died March 24 1895, aged 74 years 9 months and one day. He became a Christian when a young man and united with the C. P. church at Point Pleasant and was soon thereafter elected a ruler elder near 40 years ago. He served that church as an elder several years and was then transferred to the church at Lebanon and was elected by that church as an elder and continued to serve until the C. P. church at Morgantown was organized March 14, 1874, he became one of its charter members and was elected an elder in which capacity he continued to serve until his death, faithfully discharging every duty he was appointed to do. He frequently represented the church in Presbytery and Synod and at least once in the General Assembly. I have known him immediately since I have been his pastor, now over five years. I have not known him to fail to discharge any duty assigned to him by the session during my term of service. He never made excuses when called to perform any service for his church, such as a pastor frequently hears—such as want of time and pressing business obligations etc. He was frequently elected and filled position of honor and trust by his fellow countrymen, always receiving a liberal vote from the opposing political party. He filled the positions of county Judge and member of the Constitutional Convention.

He was estimated by all as a high-toned Christian gentleman. Another one of the old land marks is gone. We shall miss him. But we sorrow not as others which have no hope for we have abundant reason upon which to base our hope that our loss is his gain, but not fettered by human infirmities but fashioned into the likeness and image of Christ at his coming.

At a meeting of the Session of the church March 24 at 4 p. m. the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions commemorative of deceased: W. A. Helm, J. D. Tanner and J. P. Phillips, which reported as follows:

Whereas it has please our all wise Heavenly Father in the dispensation of His providence to remove from our midst Judge J. M. Forgy, an honored member of this body by death at his home at Morgantown, Ky., at 5 o'clock Sunday morning March 24, 1895, and while we bow with humble submission to this the will of our Master who knoweth what is best.

RESOLVED, That in the death of Judge Forgy the Presbyterian church at Morgantown, Ky., has lost one of its active and devoted members and a loyal and faithful officer, he having been one of its first and continuous elders since the organization of said church at this place Nov. 14, 1874, the town and community a Christian gentleman, a worthy and useful citizen, his children a kind and indulgent father.

Second, That these resolutions of respect be spread upon the minutes of the Session and a copy be furnished to the family of the deceased, and to the Green River Republican for publication.

W. A. Helm, J. D. Tanner, J. P. Phillips, Committee.

Which was adopted. Mr. Kimberlin then made a few appropriate remarks based upon a 14 chap. of John 1-6, emphasizing Christ the way exhorted all to walk in that way with assurance that the end was everlasting life. He was followed by Dr. Finley in most appropriate and feeling words reviewing the life and character of Judge Forgy as he knew him for many years. After which his body was borne to the cemetery at Morgantown and laid to rest to await the resurrection of the Just. —[Green River Republican.]

Tired, Weak, Nervous.
Means impure blood, and overwork or too much strain on brain and body. The only way to cure is to feed the nerves on pure blood. Thousands of people certify that the best blood purifier, the best nerve tonic and strength builder is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What it has done for others it will also do for you—Hood's Cures. Nervousness, loss of appetite and general debility all disappear when Hood's Sarsaparilla is persistently taken, and strong nerves, sweet sleep strong body, sharp appetite, and in a word, health and happiness follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The strong point about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that they are permanent, because they start from the solid foundation of purified, vitalized and enriched blood.

Wit in Court.
Many witty things are said by our bright lawyers in the heat of legal passion, says the Boston Traveler. Two prominent attorneys were engaged in an assault case before Judge Hardy in the municipal criminal court yesterday, whose names, for the sake of modesty, are withheld. Lawyer A., becoming nettled at Mr. B.'s leading interrogatories, called him to account sharply. Lawyer B. forgot his caution in his desire to draw out a satisfactory response in the direct examination, when Lawyer A. interposed a second time. "I believe, sir," began Mr. A. savagely, "that I object to your course of putting leading questions to the witness."

"I have ears," replied Lawyer B., solemnly.

"And I sir," rejoined Mr. A., excitedly, "have understanding."

"Well, why don't you use it?" asked the opposing counsel quietly.

The habitues of the court room broke into a roar of laughter, into which the judge joined, and for the next few minutes the officers were kept busy restoring order.

Honesty the Best Policy.

A couple of pickpockets had "pinched" a fine gold watch from a victim, who offered a reward of $100 for its recovery and no questions asked. The notice fell under the eyes of one of the gentry before the watch had been disposed of, and he took it to his pal.

"I say, Bill," he said: "here's a chance for us to get $100 for the tick—"

"It's worth $400," replied Bill.

"Yes; but you see we get this $100 and no more questions asked."

"And we lose all the balance?" suggested the thrifty William.

"Perhaps, but we get the hundred straight."

"And that ain't what we want."

Bill's pal rubbed his chin and contemplated his partner seriously.

"You're a good deal worse than I am, Bill," he said at last in a tone of sorrow.

"I guess not," protested Bill.

"It's a stand-off between us."

"Not much," responded the pal;

"I'm willing to be honest when I get the chance, but you ain't." —[Detroit Free Press.]

Don't Borrow Your Neighbor's Paper.

The Princeton Banner strikes the key note when he says: "Suppose the editor of this paper should publish only half enough papers each week for his regular subscribers, and send them out with the request that after it had been read it should be handed to the next neighbor who is a subscriber. How do you think that would work? It is very certain it would not give satisfaction, yet there are a number of people in this country who never pretend to take a paper, depending all the time on their neighbors. Some of them have the cheek to borrow the paper before the owner reads it himself. People who make a practice of this, as a general thing, have more cheek than the proverbial governmental mule. They will hold to their dollar and make light of the paper, yet they are the first to grab the paper and find out what is in it before the owner has read it. It is from this pestiferous class that most of the fault finders and critics are generated."
